

Two Gold Medals—Highest Award at The Panama Exposition, 1915

Glenwood Coal Ranges, Gas Ranges, Furnaces and Heaters, awarded Two Gold Medals, at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, Cal., 1915.

Glenwood Ranges are the product of New England's largest and best known foundry. They are designed by makers of life-long experience. They weigh more, are put together better and burn less fuel than most ranges. The castings are wonderfully smooth and easy to keep clean.

They are handsome, convenient and mechanically right—no modern feature lacking. Smooth cast, Colonial design, plain finish, compact structure, big roomy ovens, easy working grates and countless other features. Owing to their sturdy construction and fine workmanship, they will stand hard usage, do better work and last much longer than the ordinary kind.

They certainly do "Make Cooking and Baking Easy". Get one and make housekeeping drudgery.

Shea & Burke, 37-47 Main St., Norwich
C. O. Murphy, 259 Central Ave., Norwich

KEEP YOUR FACE YOUNG

CUTICURA

Soap assisted by Cuticura Ointment will help you.

Samples Free by Mail
Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 25¢ box. Address post-card "Cuticura," Dept. 107, Boston.

A. F. WOOD
"The Local Undertaker"
DANIELSON, CONN.
Parlors 8 Mechanic Street

PLAINFIELD

Twelve Men Paint Safford Block in About Two Hours—Kaiser Family in New Residence.

Mrs. Fred Briggs and children of Riverpoint, R. I., are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Briggs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jason Lathrop.

Mrs. Frederick I. Racine returned Saturday after spending a few days with relatives in Danville.

Miss Clara Lynch spent the week end with her parents in North Grosvenordale.

Cottfried Kaiser and family have moved from one of the company houses into their own house on Dougherty flat.

Rapid Painting.
The Safford block on Railroad avenue was painted in about two hours Saturday. In the block are a market, variety store, tailors, and over these are furnished rooms. A gang of 12 men started to work on the building about 1:30 and had finished about 3:30.

Visited Norwich Saturday.
Among the Norwich visitors from here Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick I. Racine, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morrisette, Mr. and Mrs. John Kraus, Mrs. Charles Alexander and daughter Annie, James Gaffney, Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney, Mrs. George Kay, Miss Jennie Rhodes, Miss Helen Noel, Miss Mae Duxbury, Miss Alice Delaney, Miss Helen McAvoy, Miss Agnes Ellis and Miss Jennie McStay.

Short Paragraphs.
Miss Nellie Lucie of Villamantic was a week end visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Despaty.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Collins and Alfred Collins of North Grosvenordale were week end visitors at the home of Mrs. Collins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blanchette, on Lawton Heights.

Miss Anna Weale and Miss Catherine Journe of Moosau visited local friends Sunday.

Leban Adams of Central Village was guest at the home of his brother, Henry Adams, Sunday.

Benjamin Briggs has a new touring car.

Waterbury.—The cost of the recent city campaign to the republican party of Waterbury was $2,126.40. The total receipts were only $1,834. The deficit, it is expected, will be made up by private subscriptions shortly.

The General Says:—

"There are some very good reasons why my business is bigger each year than it was the year before."

Some years ago asphalt roofing was sold at high prices because the volume was small and facilities were limited.

When the General entered the field he broke up the high price combine by taking advantage of all possible manufacturing economies, thereby reducing production costs to the minimum and at the same time making a roofing of unexcelled quality.

Eventually the General became recognized as the leader of the entire field, and today the best known and largest used brand in the world is

Certain-teed
Roofing

The General's big success brought about an attempt by others to imitate his policies and prices, but they didn't have the General's wonderful facilities, nor his superior equipment, nor his big organization, and it was an economic impossibility for them to equal the General's quality and price. Consequently with the reduction in price there was a big reduction in quality, and these lower quality roofings began to be sold under labels that had formerly been used on better goods.

Today the market is flooded with low quality roofings, made to sell at cheap prices without regard to the service they will give.

When you roof your building with Certain-teed you have a responsible manufacturer's guarantee of 5, 10, or 15 years according to whether the thickness is 1, 2, or 3-ply respectively. This is your advance assurance that Certain-teed will give you at least a definite and guaranteed service of years without responsibility behind them.

Certain-teed products are used and well known all over the world. Consult your local lumber and hardware dealers. They will quote you reasonable prices.

General Roofing Manufacturing Co.
Worldwide Headquarters of Roofing and Building Papers

New York City Chicago Philadelphia St. Louis
Boston Cincinnati Detroit San Francisco
Cleveland Minneapolis Kansas City Seattle
Atlanta Houston London Hamburg Sydney

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Killingly Trust Company Directors Report Gratifying and Successful Year—Renowned Planting of 100 Acres of Tobacco—Big Parcel Post Business During October—Dayville Congregational Church Remodeled.

At the regular semi-annual directors' meeting of the Killingly Trust company, which is held at the Windham County National bank, an initial dividend of 2 per cent. upon the capital stock was declared payable Nov. 1st.

Considering that the bank was organized primarily for trust and savings accounts, the results of the year's operation are very gratifying to the officers and directors of the bank. In addition to this initial dividend, it has carried $500 to the surplus account, thus placing the institution in a very strong position.

The bank makes a specialty of first mortgages on real estate, making savings deposits, upon which it pays 4 per cent. interest per annum, and deposits made on or before the fifth day of any month will draw interest from the first; administration of estates as executor, administrator or trustee, and the handling of trust funds.

William A. Gaston, president of the National Shawmut bank of Boston, and the senior member of the firm of Gaston, Snow & Saltonstall, is president of this bank. Timothy E. Hopkins, president of the Windham County National bank, is vice president, and Nathan D. Prince, vice president of the Connecticut Trust and Safe Deposit company of Hartford, is treasurer.

As individuals realize more and more the advisability of having a reliable bank handle their confidential matters, the Killingly Trust company is bound to grow in all its branches from year to year.

Ruth Dubuc Improving.
Ruth Dubuc was reported Saturday as improved at St. Vincent's hospital in Worcester.

George A. Lockman of Fall River spent Sunday with friends in Danielson.

meeting of Highland grade of South Killingly was held Saturday evening. The fair recently held by the organization was a success.

Brought in Two Coons.
Arthur Day, William Valentine, Pomfret, and Louis Fraser brought in two coons from a hunt in the Pomfret section of the county.

Louis E. Kennedy was at Canterbury to conduct the funeral of Mrs. J. H. Hyde Keith.

At the advent church Sunday, The Important Gift was Rev. George Stone's subject.

The annual supper at the Congregational church is to be held Friday evening.

Borough Law-Abiding.
There was only one case before the town court during all of last week.

A number of Danielson people were at Putnam Heights Sunday for the bi-centennial anniversary of the founding of the Congregational church on Killingly Hill.

At the B. Y. P. U. meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening Rev. W. D. Swafford gave a report of the state convention of the organization in Middletown a few days ago.

A number of the members of St. Alban's church have planned to be in Norwich on Nov. 11 to attend the banquet to be given in honor of the bishops of Connecticut.

It is expected that licenses will be granted by the county commissioners at Putnam Heights Sunday.

Danielson and Dayville may open a week from today, Nov. 1.

Will Confer Third Degree.
The third degree is to be conferred upon candidates at the meeting of Quinebaug lodge of Odd Fellows tomorrow evening. This lodge plans for a winter of activity.

The cold weather of Saturday kept many Danielson fans away from the baseball game at Putnam, but it brought many more to do fall shopping.

Rev. H. N. Brown of the Pentecostal church conducted a service at the church of the denomination in Putnam Sunday afternoon.

There was reported here Saturday that a man lost three toes from one foot when run over by a trolley car on the Providence line, across the line in Rhode Island.

About 150,000 Bricks for Mill Addition.
Approximately 150,000 bricks have been delivered at Williamsville for use in the construction of the new addition to the mill, this being a little more than one-third of the number that will be required.

Attorney Warren D. Chase is expected to be one of the witnesses this week in the trial in New York of former directors of the New Haven road.

May Plant Tobacco.
There is a possibility of central Connecticut tobacco men planting 100 acres of tobacco in this vicinity next year if a deal now being given consideration goes through to completion.

High Schools' Athletic Conference.
Killingly, Putnam, Webster and Tourtellotte High schools were represented at a meeting in Putnam for the purpose of forming a basketball league. Southbridge and Oxford High schools are to be invited to join the four teams that have agreed to enter. A constitution—the one used to govern the interscholastic league two years ago—was adopted. Another meeting will be held Friday of next week to draw up a schedule of games and to make other arrangements for the opening of the season.

PARCEL POST PACKAGES
Numbered 2,320 During First Fifteen Days of October.

Records kept at the local postoffice during the first 15 days of October show that the total number of parcel post packages delivered was 1,476 and that the total number sent out was $56, a total handled of 2,320. During the first 15 days of October, 1914, 1,775 pieces were handled, and during the first 15 days of last April 2,103 pieces were delivered or sent out, so it will be noted the gain has been steady and considerable during the past 12 months. The weight of the packages, handled during the first 15 days of the present month was 1,550 pounds.

DAYVILLE CHURCH REOPENED.
Congregationalists Hold Services in Handsomely Remodeled Edifice.

For the first time since the interior remodeling has been completed, services were held in the Congregational church at Dayville Sunday, and these services, morning and evening, were made of a special nature.

The church interior has undergone a number of important changes since the work of remodeling was commenced in August, and the improvement achieved is decided. Through the changes the body of the church has been made somewhat smaller. Under the new arrangement the choir will be on the platform in the rear of the pulpit instead of one side as formerly. At the front of the church two vestibules have been made into one large one. A steel ceiling has been installed and the interior of the church painted, recar-

PUTNAM

Bicentennial of Founding of First Congregational Church at Putnam Heights Commemorated Sunday—Sermon By Rev. Israel White, of New Jersey—Church Organization Has Had Interesting History.

Many from this city and other surrounding places were at Putnam Heights Sunday to attend the services at the First Congregational church commemorative of its founding 200 years ago. The sermon was preached by Rev. Israel White of New Jersey. Rev. D. B. Sargent of this city who has preached at the church in the past in connection with his work in Putnam, was also present, and there were other representatives of the clergy men in this section.

This church was within the limits of the town of Killingly at its founding, but in the creating of the town of Putnam that section of the old town was set aside as a part of the new township. Its history is intertwined with the history of Killingly, as well as with that of Putnam, an outline of it being as follows:

Beginnings of Church.
The first movement for establishing the Gospel ministry in Killingly was in 1708 when the court granted "liberty to the inhabitants to survey and lay out one hundred acres of land within their township for the use and encouragement of a minister to settle there and carry on the worship of God among them." A hundred acres of land were donated by George Chandler in the presence and with the concurrence of the selectmen.

First Minister.
The first minister was Rev. John Fisk, of Braintree, Mass., a son of Rev. Moses Fisk and a graduate of Harvard college and today in this section are a number of his descendants in the eighth generation. His work probably began about 1710, religious services being held in private houses in different parts of the town. July 18th, 1711, the town agreed to give Mr. Fisk three hundred and fifty acres of land for his encouragement to settle in the work of the ministry. Stated religious services were probably held after this date.

Meeting House Raised.
In the summer of 1714 the meeting house was raised and covered. Its site was about a quarter of mile south of the present East Putnam meeting house but nothing is known of its size, appearance or circumstances of its building. September 15th, 1715, was observed in Killingly as a day of solemn fasting and prayer, preparatory to the gathering of a church and the ordination of a pastor. October 15th, 1715, a church was organized and Rev. John Fisk ordained its pastor. (It is this organization that is now being observed.)

Original Members.
The original members were: John Fisk, James Danielson, Peter Aspinwall, James Leavens, Benjamin Howe, Ebenezer Baiman, Richard Bloscoe, George Blanchard, Isaac Jewett, Thomas Gould and Stephen Grover. Six additional communicants were admitted before the close of the year. In December of the same year Peter Aspinwall and Ebenezer Baiman were chosen deacons, the first marriage recorded by the young minister was that of William Larned to Hannah Bryant. The ministry of Rev. Mr. Fisk was accepted and prosperous and large numbers were added to the church.

The church prospered for a while and in 1725-26 a season of special religious interest added sixty to its membership. Mr. Fisk remained in the pastorate until July 8th, 1741, when he was dismissed at his own request.

Unhappy Controversy.
A protracted meeting house controversy followed the dismissal of Mr. Fisk. It was decided to build a new meeting house and to divide the first society into two and the people of each prospective society had to have the meeting house within their own bounds. The northern people wished it to stand near the old church on Killingly Hill and the southern people wanted it located on Breakneck Hill. A disgraceful wrangle ensued and the assembly and governor and council were appealed to by both sides but the recommendations and advice were disregarded by the Breakneck Hill. A disagreement was caused and the assembly and governor and council were appealed to by both sides but the recommendations and advice were disregarded by the Breakneck Hill. A disgraceful wrangle ensued and the assembly and governor and council were appealed to by both sides but the recommendations and advice were disregarded by the Breakneck Hill.

Discontent soon arose and many withdrew to the Baptist society and in July, 1778, Mr. Foster was dismissed and for several years services were maintained somewhat irregularly. Mr. Eliza Atkins of Middletown was installed June 3rd, 1787, the society granting five pounds salary, and the cutting and drawing of the minister's firewood was shared by the Breakneck and the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Still the First Church.
Residents of the valley, Pomfret, had long been connected with the old church on Killingly Hill and after the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Damaged by September Gale.
The old church was becoming out of repair and a new one was talked of but nothing was done until the famous "September gale" so damaged the building that repairs were no longer practicable. The remains of the old building were sold at auction January 28th, 1818 and during the summer a new house was built. It is said that "spirits" used in raising this frame cost $25.

Served Nearly Half a Century.
Mr. Atkins continued in sole charge until 1832, when, after nearly half a century of service, he was compelled to employ a colleague. Reverends William Bushnell, Sidney Holman and Henry Robinson were successively installed in office the latter remaining in charge several years after the death of the venerable pastor in 1839. Rev. James Mather appears to have been in charge in 1846 at about which time that part of Killingly in which the church was situated became a part of Putnam.

King Alfonso of Spain is a general in the British army.

superior to any other in the county. It had three great double doors opening east, west and south; large square pews furnished with lattice work; a high pulpit and sounding board; galleries front and sides, with rising seats and wall pews in the rear and two flights of broad stairs leading to them.

Rev. Aaron Brown, of Windsor, was ordained January 19th, 1754 and the society was now prosperous. Mr. Brown was succeeded by Rev. Emerson Foster who was ordained January 21st, 1778, the society offering him 250 pounds for settlement and 20 pounds salary.

A Stormy Period.
Discontent soon arose and many withdrew to the Baptist society and in July, 1778, Mr. Foster was dismissed and for several years services were maintained somewhat irregularly. Mr. Eliza Atkins of Middletown was installed June 3rd, 1787, the society granting five pounds salary, and the cutting and drawing of the minister's firewood was shared by the Breakneck and the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Still the First Church.
Residents of the valley, Pomfret, had long been connected with the old church on Killingly Hill and after the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Damaged by September Gale.
The old church was becoming out of repair and a new one was talked of but nothing was done until the famous "September gale" so damaged the building that repairs were no longer practicable. The remains of the old building were sold at auction January 28th, 1818 and during the summer a new house was built. It is said that "spirits" used in raising this frame cost $25.

Served Nearly Half a Century.
Mr. Atkins continued in sole charge until 1832, when, after nearly half a century of service, he was compelled to employ a colleague. Reverends William Bushnell, Sidney Holman and Henry Robinson were successively installed in office the latter remaining in charge several years after the death of the venerable pastor in 1839. Rev. James Mather appears to have been in charge in 1846 at about which time that part of Killingly in which the church was situated became a part of Putnam.

King Alfonso of Spain is a general in the British army.

superior to any other in the county. It had three great double doors opening east, west and south; large square pews furnished with lattice work; a high pulpit and sounding board; galleries front and sides, with rising seats and wall pews in the rear and two flights of broad stairs leading to them.

Rev. Aaron Brown, of Windsor, was ordained January 19th, 1754 and the society was now prosperous. Mr. Brown was succeeded by Rev. Emerson Foster who was ordained January 21st, 1778, the society offering him 250 pounds for settlement and 20 pounds salary.

A Stormy Period.
Discontent soon arose and many withdrew to the Baptist society and in July, 1778, Mr. Foster was dismissed and for several years services were maintained somewhat irregularly. Mr. Eliza Atkins of Middletown was installed June 3rd, 1787, the society granting five pounds salary, and the cutting and drawing of the minister's firewood was shared by the Breakneck and the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Still the First Church.
Residents of the valley, Pomfret, had long been connected with the old church on Killingly Hill and after the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Damaged by September Gale.
The old church was becoming out of repair and a new one was talked of but nothing was done until the famous "September gale" so damaged the building that repairs were no longer practicable. The remains of the old building were sold at auction January 28th, 1818 and during the summer a new house was built. It is said that "spirits" used in raising this frame cost $25.

Served Nearly Half a Century.
Mr. Atkins continued in sole charge until 1832, when, after nearly half a century of service, he was compelled to employ a colleague. Reverends William Bushnell, Sidney Holman and Henry Robinson were successively installed in office the latter remaining in charge several years after the death of the venerable pastor in 1839. Rev. James Mather appears to have been in charge in 1846 at about which time that part of Killingly in which the church was situated became a part of Putnam.

King Alfonso of Spain is a general in the British army.

superior to any other in the county. It had three great double doors opening east, west and south; large square pews furnished with lattice work; a high pulpit and sounding board; galleries front and sides, with rising seats and wall pews in the rear and two flights of broad stairs leading to them.

Rev. Aaron Brown, of Windsor, was ordained January 19th, 1754 and the society was now prosperous. Mr. Brown was succeeded by Rev. Emerson Foster who was ordained January 21st, 1778, the society offering him 250 pounds for settlement and 20 pounds salary.

A Stormy Period.
Discontent soon arose and many withdrew to the Baptist society and in July, 1778, Mr. Foster was dismissed and for several years services were maintained somewhat irregularly. Mr. Eliza Atkins of Middletown was installed June 3rd, 1787, the society granting five pounds salary, and the cutting and drawing of the minister's firewood was shared by the Breakneck and the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Still the First Church.
Residents of the valley, Pomfret, had long been connected with the old church on Killingly Hill and after the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Damaged by September Gale.
The old church was becoming out of repair and a new one was talked of but nothing was done until the famous "September gale" so damaged the building that repairs were no longer practicable. The remains of the old building were sold at auction January 28th, 1818 and during the summer a new house was built. It is said that "spirits" used in raising this frame cost $25.

Served Nearly Half a Century.
Mr. Atkins continued in sole charge until 1832, when, after nearly half a century of service, he was compelled to employ a colleague. Reverends William Bushnell, Sidney Holman and Henry Robinson were successively installed in office the latter remaining in charge several years after the death of the venerable pastor in 1839. Rev. James Mather appears to have been in charge in 1846 at about which time that part of Killingly in which the church was situated became a part of Putnam.

King Alfonso of Spain is a general in the British army.

superior to any other in the county. It had three great double doors opening east, west and south; large square pews furnished with lattice work; a high pulpit and sounding board; galleries front and sides, with rising seats and wall pews in the rear and two flights of broad stairs leading to them.

Rev. Aaron Brown, of Windsor, was ordained January 19th, 1754 and the society was now prosperous. Mr. Brown was succeeded by Rev. Emerson Foster who was ordained January 21st, 1778, the society offering him 250 pounds for settlement and 20 pounds salary.

A Stormy Period.
Discontent soon arose and many withdrew to the Baptist society and in July, 1778, Mr. Foster was dismissed and for several years services were maintained somewhat irregularly. Mr. Eliza Atkins of Middletown was installed June 3rd, 1787, the society granting five pounds salary, and the cutting and drawing of the minister's firewood was shared by the Breakneck and the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Still the First Church.
Residents of the valley, Pomfret, had long been connected with the old church on Killingly Hill and after the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Damaged by September Gale.
The old church was becoming out of repair and a new one was talked of but nothing was done until the famous "September gale" so damaged the building that repairs were no longer practicable. The remains of the old building were sold at auction January 28th, 1818 and during the summer a new house was built. It is said that "spirits" used in raising this frame cost $25.

Served Nearly Half a Century.
Mr. Atkins continued in sole charge until 1832, when, after nearly half a century of service, he was compelled to employ a colleague. Reverends William Bushnell, Sidney Holman and Henry Robinson were successively installed in office the latter remaining in charge several years after the death of the venerable pastor in 1839. Rev. James Mather appears to have been in charge in 1846 at about which time that part of Killingly in which the church was situated became a part of Putnam.

King Alfonso of Spain is a general in the British army.

superior to any other in the county. It had three great double doors opening east, west and south; large square pews furnished with lattice work; a high pulpit and sounding board; galleries front and sides, with rising seats and wall pews in the rear and two flights of broad stairs leading to them.

Rev. Aaron Brown, of Windsor, was ordained January 19th, 1754 and the society was now prosperous. Mr. Brown was succeeded by Rev. Emerson Foster who was ordained January 21st, 1778, the society offering him 250 pounds for settlement and 20 pounds salary.

A Stormy Period.
Discontent soon arose and many withdrew to the Baptist society and in July, 1778, Mr. Foster was dismissed and for several years services were maintained somewhat irregularly. Mr. Eliza Atkins of Middletown was installed June 3rd, 1787, the society granting five pounds salary, and the cutting and drawing of the minister's firewood was shared by the Breakneck and the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

Still the First Church.
Residents of the valley, Pomfret, had long been connected with the old church on Killingly Hill and after the town of Putnam was incorporated from portions of the towns of Pomfret, Killingly, Thompson and Woodstock the church on the hill was recognized, and still is recognized as the First Congregational church of Putnam and having its foundation in July, 1548.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Norman Graves Improving—Machinery Being Installed in Button Factory—Addition to Fabyan Woolen Mill.

Norman Graves, who was injured in an automobile accident several days ago, is improving and was able to attend to business for a short time Saturday.

James Hampton has sold his property to Louis Lewis.

Button Factory Nearly Ready.
The work of installing the machinery in the Hope mill for the United Pearl Button Manufacturing company is nearly completed and it is expected that the new industry will be in operation within a very short time.

Mill Addition.
The Fabyan Woolen company is building an addition to its mill in Staffordville in order to give more room to the carding department.

Entertainment in Magic.
Li Ho Chang, a Chinese magician, gave an entertainment at St. Edward's hall before a fair sized audience Saturday afternoon and evening.

The leaves in the woods are about all off and hunters are finding it much easier than at the opening of the season to locate their game.

The high school teachers attended the state teachers' convention in Hartford Friday. Some of the teachers in the outlying districts took the day for visiting other schools.

Returns to Borough.
Joseph Wasserman, who formerly conducted a store in the Rockwell building on Main street, has returned to town with his family and has bargained for the Garvals stock and building on Main street.

Nagieon Per, Jr., is spending a few days in New York and Philadelphia. Mrs. T. F. Mullen has been the guest of friends in Boston.

High School Social.
The first of this year's high school socials was held at the assembly room Friday evening and was a very enjoyable affair.

A number from Stafford Springs have been attending the races in Windsor this week.

H. C. Fisk was in Springfield on business Friday.

On Motor Outing.
Mr. and Mrs. Enos E. Penny have been on an automobile trip through Long Island and New Jersey.

Miss Margaret Rafferty is the guest of friends in Hartford.

The town school committee will hold a meeting at the library this (Monday) evening.

Andrew Jacob